The Class of 2013 Invests in Future Tritons

With graduation quickly approaching, UC San Diego seniors are counting their final days on campus and reflecting upon the friends, achievements and defining moments that have shaped their college experience. They are also leaving a legacy for future Tritons through the Senior Class Gift. With a contribution representative of their class year—$20.13—to support student scholarships, seniors are helping to ensure that future Tritons achieve the same outstanding UC San Diego education that they did.

The Senior Class Gift is organized by the UC San Diego Student Foundation in collaboration with UCSD Alumni. Established in 1999 with a gift from UC San Diego alumni Patricia, ’83 and Marc, ’79 Bruten, the Student Foundation promotes a culture of philanthropy by teaching fellow students how to invest, fundraise and manage an endowment—all in the name of student scholarships. The UC San Diego Student Foundation is one of just a few similar organizations nationwide and the first of its kind in the UC system.

In addition to the Senior Class Gift, the organization works year-round to educate fellow students about the critical role of private support in the UC San Diego experience, and what they can do now to make a difference for their campus. Hundreds of students choose to give back each year by making a $25 contribution to the Student Foundation’s Give, Invest, Gain. initiative, which supports scholarships and student life programs.

This year, the Student Foundation is matching contributions to the 2013 Senior Class Gift—a gesture they hope will encourage more seniors to participate in giving back. To date, the 2013 Senior Class Gift has raised approximately $15,000, with the goal of raising an additional $10,000 before the commencement ceremonies conclude.

Just as UC San Diego seniors are creating their legacy for the campus, parents and families can make a difference for future generations of Tritons with a gift to the Parents Innovation Fund. These contributions support student life and academic enrichment programs—opportunities that can mean the difference between a good college experience and an outstanding one.

As UC San Diego and its alumni have grown in rank and influence internationally, students have a great sense of legacy and ownership of the future of the institution,” said Brandon Bubbee, director of Outreach and Engagement at UCSD Alumni. “The students are communicating a powerful message about what they believe about their experience and the future of UC San Diego.”

We are proud of our students for their commitment to public service and philanthropy, in addition to their remarkable academic achievements. Please join our students in supporting UC San Diego. To learn how you can make a difference, visit the Parent and Family Giving webpage or contact Suzanne McClain, director of Parent and Family Giving, at sumcclain@ucsd.edu or (858) 822-3353.
Make Hotel Reservations Today!

Families are encouraged to make travel plans, hotel arrangements, and car rental reservations early. Approximately 4,000 undergraduate students graduate from UC San Diego each year, and therefore hotels in the area reach occupancy quickly.

UC San Diego Parent & Family Programs has partnered with Bartell Hotels to offer parents, students, families, alumni, and friends reduced hotel rates at some of the finest properties in San Diego. Every time you stay at one of the Bartell Hotels’ seven distinguished properties, they will donate a percentage of that total room cost to support student scholarships at UC San Diego and promote university events. To take advantage of these special rates and make a reservation for your family, call (800) 345-9995 or visit tritonfamilydestinations.com.
